

Jennifer Charlton-Shuldes

Ms. Charlton-Shuldes currently serves as President of the Frederick County Commission for Women as well as a member of the board for the Woman to Woman Mentoring Program. She is passionate about making a difference for women and believes strongly in the power of mentoring and the importance of continued education. She returned to school at the age of 46 to complete her bachelor's degree in Communication Arts from University of Maryland, College Park. She is working in various aspects of fundraising with several non-profits in the Washington, DC and Frederick areas, including co-chairing the fashion show for FCC Foundation's "Clutch the Future" purse auction fundraiser.

As a professional Jazz Vocalist and recording artist, she has performed in Los Angeles opening for Della Reese as well as in the New York, Atlanta and Washington areas. She is a former Miss Maryland with the Miss America program as well as a former Self-expression and Leadership Program Leader of transformational training and development programs in Washington, DC for the international training company Landmark Education.